Concept

The film aims to provide a particular and unique visual angle on the world of fashion, an approach that winks at the catwalk and the glitter of the apparel but at the same time captures its negative side with special reference to the competitive aspects, to the struggle uncaring of whom it destroys, all for the sake of ... Success.

Story Line

Prague Czech Republic

A group of women prepares for an evening at the Fashion Club Prague. The arrival of the "challenger" in the room disrupts the atmosphere. The space is transformed into a "ring". Women know the arts of "no holds barred competition", including deception and betrayal ...

Rossano B. Maniscalchi

Director

As a highly acclaimed photographer and film maker (globally ranked in the top 100) Rossano B. Maniscalchi has worked with many high profile fashion brands, and his commercial work is limited to specifically chosen high calibre brands.

Svetlana Feodulova

Singer Soprano, Actress

Svetlana Feodulova is the owner of the highest voice in the world. As an on-stage performer, she was recognized by a large audience not only in Russia, but also abroad. Thanks to her phenomenal voice, she is able to perform any repertoire. If her charisma, elegance, style, energy and rich imagination are added to this unique skill, it becomes clear what distinguishes Svetlana from many other opera singers.

Svetlana Feodulova is one of the brightest representatives of Crossover style.

She boldly experiments and combines classical opera arias with many modern musical styles.

In 2010 Svetlana won the hearts of millions of spectators, setting Russian and Guinness records as "The highest female voice in the world", "The highest coloratura soprano" (in the female category), singing in the fourth octave. She did not stop there. Six months later, Svetlana created an incredible concert number: masterfully performing Doll Olympia's Aria, she simultaneously danced on pointe shoes.

The beauty, strength and uniqueness of her voice, as well as the presentation, refinement and elegance of her stage image, prompted critics to call Svetlana "a singer who has everything: a phenomenal voice (with a unique timbre, purity and range), artistry, charisma, powerful energy, creative imagination, Subtle intuition and intelligence - all this in combination with incredible charm, because of which it is impossible to look away from her when she is on stage."

German Plushenko

DOP, editor, photographer

I've been in love with photography since I was 12 years old and dreamed about the camera. I was fascinated by fashion pictures produced by the masters of that time published in magazines.

I studied light and technology in Soviet photobooks until I actually obtained photo equipment.

I got my first camera at the age 13 and still have not parted with it. In 2007 I graduated from the Faculty of Cinematography in Kiev and managed to make several music videos on film, before the advent of the era of digital cinema. Since 2008, I have worked on major television projects, filmed and edited advertisements for airlines and hotels. In 2014 I moved to Israel where I plunged into the world of video shooting and video editing. Since 2020 I have been living in Montenegro and exploring new locations and new horizons in creativity.
